Summary

(17)

The target appears to be an object with dimensional descriptors of hollow, wide, tall, between, above, narrow, oblong, not big, small, hollow, hollow below, even. There are areas below within are enclosed and hollow. There is back and forth undulating motion in this area.

There appear to be 3 lifeforms - together - animal, or biological, or possibly deceased humans - as evidenced by lack of emotion perceived.

Ideas associated with the target - calmness, serenity, quiet, as it should be, stands alone like an island, useful, together, ~~composed~~ composed

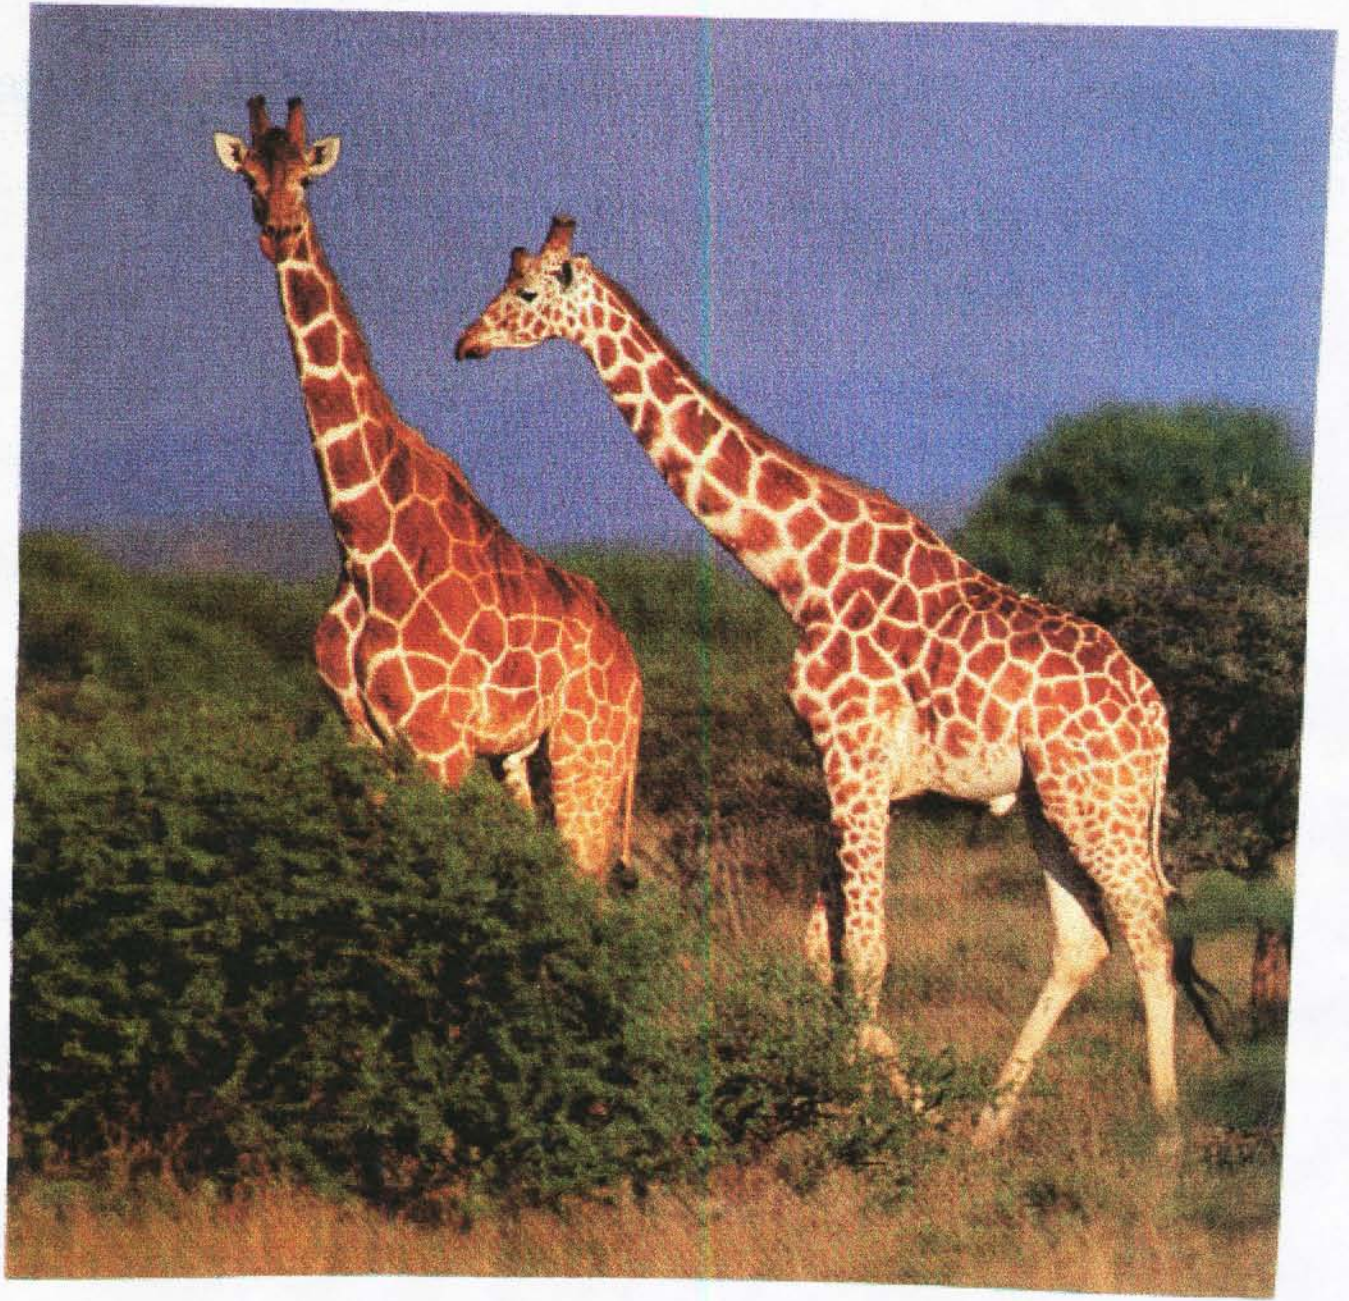

An aspect is simple, crude, placed, placed on purpose, useful purpose, outdoors.

I would be calm, quiet about most of this target, and a bit afraid about part of it.

Summary

There seem to be three important aspects at the target site. The target is spinning, and is conical in shape.

There is some sort of energy associated with the target. The target is somehow like a spinning top and an exit, possibly for energy.

Aspect [A] seems to be enclosed and possibly connecting the large round feature (Aspect [B]) to the area on top.

There appears to be a life form inside of Aspect [A], with the emotions of worried, waiting, anticipative and power-hungry.

There is some movement through Aspect [B], possibly liquid or energy of some type.

There are possibly 8 life forms ~~around~~ around the edge of aspect [B]. Something about Aspect B is like a pipe.

The life form in Aspect [A] seems to be in control or in charge.

There also seems to be some liquid or energy flow in Aspect [A].
